

April 20, 2021

Dear Parents/Guardians,

- ✓ Giveback Day: Since we did not use all of our allotted emergency days (snow days) for the 2020-2021 school year, and to maintain the required 180-day instructional requirement for all school districts in NY State, our “giveback day” will be Tuesday, June 1, 2021. That means that there will not be school in session on Tuesday, June 1, 2021. We want to inform all parents/guardians as soon as possible, as it may impact your travel plans now that school will not be in session the day after Memorial Day as some families may now opt to have that as their travel day. The District has only used two out of our five allotted emergency days, so if we end up calling three more snow days then there will not be a “giveback day” and school will be in session on June 1, 2021. I can confidently state that we will likely not have three more snow days, so it is safe to plan June 1 as a day where school is not in session.
- ✓ Revised Travel Advisory: “Asymptomatic travelers entering New York from another country, U.S. state, or territory are no longer required to test or quarantine as of April 10, 2021.” To view the revised Travel Advisory in its entirety, click the following link, <https://coronavirus.health.ny.gov/covid-19-travel-advisory>
