Dear Parents/Guardians,

We were notified today of the following COVID-19 cases across the District:

- A staff member at A.A. Cole Elementary tested positive for COVID-19. No students or staff were at risk of exposure.
- A staff member at Millard Hawk Elementary tested positive for COVID-19. No students or staff were at risk of exposure.
- A staff member at Paul V. Moore High School tested positive for COVID-19. No students or staff were at risk of exposure.
- Two students at Paul V. Moore High School tested positive for COVID-19. No students or staff were at risk of exposure.
- A staff member at Central Square Middle School tested positive for COVID-19. No students were exposed, however, after talking to the Oswego County Health Department, the District is currently notifying any staff member that the Health Department has deemed “close contacts” that will require a mandatory 10 day quarantine.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Colabufio
Superintendent
