No one in the audience had any questions and Mr. Colabufo shared that all this information is on our website under the business tab. Erin Phillips will be presenting at the August Board meeting. If anyone in the audience or community has any questions, please call him anytime, and he will discuss where the money has been spent or any other questions they may have.</li> <li>- Graduation was a great success. The student speeches and guest speakers’ speeches were awesome. Mr. Colabufo has many parents and grandparents tell him how happy they were about the patriotic part of graduation. Central Square has a long history of alumni that has gone into the service, and we are very proud of them.</li> <li>- Mr. Colabufo is also happy to see that the retired New York State teacher sub pay is going up to $150 per day. This may increase our quality teacher substitutes this year. It is a very hard thing to find teacher substitutes right now.</li> <li>- There were a few Board members that mentioned they may know someone that is interested in filling the 1-year vacant Board seat that Timothy McCarthy vacated. Please email the Board President, Allison Douglas, with any names you may have and copy our District Clerk.
