Gov. Kathy Hochul unveiled her $233 billion 2024-25 Executive Budget proposal on Tuesday, January 16. It closes a $4.3 billion deficit the state faced.

“Governor Hochul’s proposed 2024-25 state budget would undermine one of the signature accomplishments of her administration—achieving full funding of the Foundation Aid formula. The proposal would reduce by over $400 million the Foundation Aid level called for by the formula now in law.”

- NYS Council of School Superintendents

“Yesterday Governor Kathy Hochul released her 2024-25 Executive Budget proposal. While there are a few items included that appear to be steps in the right direction for educational programs and services and the financing of them, there are a number of concerning proposals that we want to make members aware.”

- Association of School Business Officials

“The Executive Budget proposal for 2024-25 appears to pull back from the substantial progress New York has made with Foundation Aid funding in recent years.”

- NYS Schools Boards Association
